

Reading St. Paul with Saints and Poets

Raphael, St Paul Preaching in Athens (1515). Victoria and Albert Museum, London.

Professor Stephen C. Córdoba is coming to St. Michael Parish in Livermore to speak on St. Paul.

Wednesday, May 27th "Reading St. Paul with St. Augustine of Hippo"

Wednesday, June 3rd "Reading St. Paul with St. Francis of Assisi"

Thursday, June 18th "Reading St. Paul with Dante Alighieri"

These talks explore how St. Augustine of Hippo, St. Francis of Assisi, and Dante Alighieri read and interpreted St. Paul's understanding of Christ. For these thinkers, Christ is the motive force of conversion; the Being who changes hearts, the source of grace that works with and beyond our natural capacities to bring us to where we truly belong. Each presentation will feature an extended meditation from the letters of St. Paul in light of the works of these great thinkers.

The talks will take place at St. Michael Parish Hall in Livermore at 7pm.
Light refreshment will be available.

Please come and enjoy these three evenings with Professor Córdoba and St. Paul offered by St. Michael Parish Faith Enrichment Team.
